- Discussion on Agendas

Agendas and Decision:

- 11.1 Fake Facebook ID Allegation and Investigation committee report

The NCC USA executive committee received a complaint from life member Mr. Prasanna Sangroula against Spokesperson Mr. Om Bhattarai and Advisor Mr. Shiva Malla accusing that they are involved in the operation of a fake Facebook account named "Shidha Kura". Mr. Sangroula also accused Mr. Bhattarai and Mr. Malla that who are also involved in the defamation of the community members using the fake Facebook account. In his written statement, he has requested to investigate and take disciplinary action if found guilty. The executive board discussed this agenda at the 6th Executive Board meeting and board had formed an independent investigation committee under the chairmanship of Sr. Vice President Dr. Arjun Banjade. The Fake Facebook ID investigation committee submitted the report to the executive board on May 31, 2020 (please see the investigation committee report).

Fake Facebook ID investigation committee chair presented the finding to the board. The report explains that the investigation committee did not find any evidence of guilty based on the accusation. Furthermore, there are no legal base to accept or deny the findings of an investigating committee. Fake Facebook ID Allegation and investigation committee report was discussed deeply in the committee and the board members were given the opportunity to ask questions and opinions to the investigating team.

After the discussion, Mr. President Suneel Sah announced that the investigation committee did not find guilty, and also there is no legal option in NRNA NCC USA bylaws to take legal action based on the accusation. He also added that if Mr. Om Bhattarai and Mr. Shiva Malla find guilty by the government of the USA, the executive board will dismiss them from the current position. In the conclusion, Mr. President announced that the allegation case is closed.

Meeting adjourned by President

Sincerely,

Pashupati Pandey
General Secretary

Sincerely,

Suneel Sah
President
